

BILLBOARD OF BROTHERHOOD

State Master Councilor's Message:

Hey Hey Washington DeMolay!

Get your sandals, shorts, and sunscreen ready, because summertime is here! Summer is a perfect opportunity to plan some fun events to invite your friends to, take road trips and, most of all, create memories that you and brothers will talk about for years to come.

It's hard to believe one month has already flown by! After some stellar State retreats, great Official Visits, a few well-planned installations, a soggy Paintball war, and a handful of Chapter events, we've started the year off running! A great start will lead to a great finish!

Don't forget about all of our upcoming events! See below for the hype surrounding WOFAB - the best camping trip of the year. DLC is also next month, make sure you register for the new Leveled Up leadership conference that will ensure development, more fun than you knew existed, and the best slab of ribs you will sink your teeth into. Also, have you seen Washington DeMolay University? Take your LCC's (they are up there and they are as free as the air we breathe), claim awards, learn, and Level Up!

It's summertime everybody. It's time to soak up some sun, have some fun, and Level Up.

Fraternally,

Luke A. Walker
State Master Councilor
Washington DeMolay

Recap of State Paintball 2016

Paintball 2016 started with a bang. Quite literally when SMC Luke Walker woke everyone up with a good "Hey Hey, Ho Ho" exercise. The many who spent the night following Puyallup's Installation of Officers, cleaned up the lodge and made their way to KC Crusaders.

Fun fact about Washington; it rains, a lot. Fun fact about people living in Washington (and that Southern Washington suburb called Oregon); we don't let the rain stop us. This year's theme was Camo, or Blamo!

We saw a whole lot of Blamo but had trouble seeing much Camo (get it?). Historians disagree whether the attendance was as much as it was with all this supposed Camo everywhere. But nonetheless we had fun on and off of the field. This kind of quality at State Events only means we are closer to leveling up Washington DeMolay! Be sure to check out the photos here.

WOFAB- Campfires and Brotherhood!

Grab your overalls, plungers, and pretty princess dress, because WOFAB 2016 is on its way!! Wouldn't you be jumping out of your shoes for a weekend of Mario Kart, Coleman Grills, and Campfires?

Join us on August 5th-7th for our Weekend of Family and Brotherhood that will be based at the Leavenworth RV Campground (It's more beautiful than the Mushroom Kingdom, check it out here). It is $12 per person plus $85 per tent site or $120 per RV site. Space is limited so register by July 14th so you can enjoy a Leveled Up camping experience.

WDU Course of the Month - LCC's

Have you signed up for WDU yet?!? This is our new and improved leadership resource. We are going to be posting new information all the time so be on the lookout! The latest and greatest addition are the new LCC quizzes. Completing these is the way you can earn your Lamp of Knowledge and Merit Bars. After you complete each LCC, you will unlock a sweet badge to show off on your account. If you complete an LCC with no incorrect answers, then you get an even sweeter, special badge. After they're all done you get the Lamp of Knowledge, a badge that everyone should be proud of! When you earn it; you can share it on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and everywhere else! We challenge all of you to go out and complete your LCCs, that way you can level up your DeMolay knowledge. If you have any questions feel free to contact John Jacobson at jjacobson@wademolay.org! He has all the information!

Gamer of the Publication - David Hesner Gamertag - davitslit

Brother David is the Gamer of the Publication! David has been in DeMolay for a few years, but has now recently gone in as Master Councilor of Puyallup Chapter! He also was a big contributor at the last WADA which he agrees helped him prepare for his term! David has a lot of dedication, and he is ready to Level Up Puyallup DeMolay. Congratulations David!!!

WA DeMolay Update - Sign Up To Start Getting Your Notices

FREE T-SHIRT

One Free Term Shirt

Offer Expires 06/01/2016. Coupon must be sent by carrier pigeon to Hour Man Press in Tocamo, WA. Coupon can be redeemed for this year's term shirt. Redeemer must be a first-line signer of 19 petitions prior to redemption request. 1 coupon allowed per redemption. Not valid where not prohibited. Valid everywhere else. Sizes available in toddlers and newborn. If the redeemer cannot produce a toddler or newborn available for correct sizing purposes, one may be provided for them.

Value of this coupon is less than your value to DeMolay. That is not to say that either are worthless, but this is a volunteer organization where no one gets paid. Not even those deserving of pay, or attorneys hired to prepare meaningless disclaimers that make the coupon in question impossible to claim. Nope, not even them, and they have law school loans to repay.

Where have they been? Where are they going?

Your State Corps have been traveling all over the Pacific Northwest. So where have they been and where are they going?
